NARRATIVE:

Calvin Hastings has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include rape of a child by force, lewd acts with a child under 14, exhibiting a firearm, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, robbery, battery, multiple cases of failing to register as a sex offender and interfering with a fireman/rescuer. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 12 year term for assault with a deadly weapon with prior violent felony. Hastings was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 21, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Hastings qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for failing to register as a sex offender is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
